

A Every week for five or six years. I usually go over there the first part of the week; sometimes if the weather isn't good we skip a week; if the weather is bad and rainy and she cannot do the washing.

Q Whom did you see there?

A Why, Mrs. Van Note, Mrs. Theodore Van Note; once or twice I have been over there and she has not been at home and then I will leave the clothes on the back stoop and go on to Lavalette ;but I cannot say whether she was home that day or not, but she is 99 times out of 100, or 19 times out of 20, that I saw Mrs. Van Note there.

BY MR. PALZER:

Q Mr. Stevens, when you went down to the Post Office that morning, do you remember receiving any mail for Mrs. Stevens?

A I do not, and I doubt if I did. I came back from Osbornville on the other road through Mantoloking to Lavalette; in the afternoon of that day I fished again and caught a blue fish which weighed four pounds. On that evening I went over to the Egers and told them that I had this fish and offered it to them and also to keep it in my icebox for them until the next day. Mrs. Eger agreed to cook the fish on Saturday morning and
